PONTOON

Rules and Guidelines

PONTOON

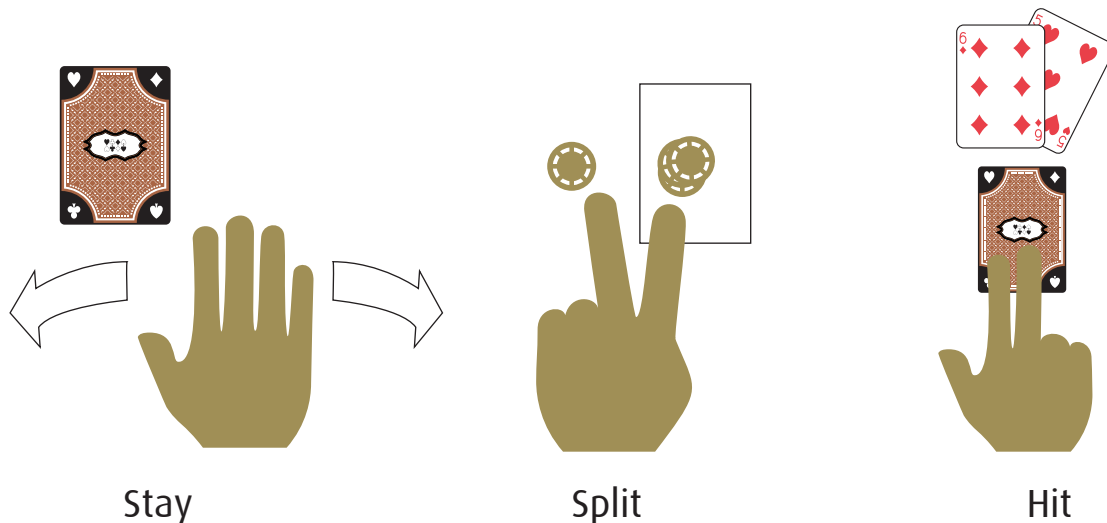

Pontoon is a variation of Blackjack game that gives you additional ways to win with more payout odds including a side wager called Pontoon Pandemonium.

AIM OF THE GAME

The aim of the game is to achieve a pontoon hand which is an Ace with any King, Queen or Jack. If the player could not achieve a Pontoon hand, he or she should have a hand total higher than the Dealer's hand but not exceeding 21 points in order to win. In the game of Pontoon, 10's are removed from the game.

HOW TO PLAY

Two initial cards are delivered to the players and one for the dealer. Players can make a decision on their two initial cards. Options are given such as Insurance and Surrender depending on the house card. On the subsequent game, players can act on their cards, either choosing to Double, Split, Draw, Stay or Fold. The player's decision making is based on the game rules.

BETTING OPTION

- Surrender
Player can surrender half of their bet if the Dealer's initial card is Ace, King, Queen or Jack
- Insurance
Player can buy insurance if the dealer's initial card is an Ace.

- Surrender
Player can surrender half of their bet if the Dealer's initial card is Ace, King, Queen or Jack
- Insurance
Player can buy insurance if the dealer's initial card is an Ace.
- Splitting
When your first two cards dealt to your hand are of the same value, you may place an additional bet equal in value to your original bet and split the hand. You can split up to two times, to create a maximum of three hands, unless splitting aces, which may only be split once to form two hands.
- Double Down
An additional bet that is up to the value of your original bet. You may double on your first two cards, except when you are dealt a Pontoon. When doubling, you receive only one additional card on your hand. Dealer takes original bets only when dealers hand is Pontoon.
- Any Pair
Will win if the 2 initial cards or subsequent card from splits form a pair.
